

Official Media Release

7th November, 2019

The Auditor-General attends the Australasian Council of Public Accounts Committees Conference in Canberra, Australia

The Auditor-General Mr Ajay Nand was invited to attend the 15th Biennial Australasian Council of Public Accounts Committees Conference (ACPAC) in the Australian Parliament House, Canberra, Australia from 6th – 8th November, 2019.

The ACPAC provides a unique forum for the exchange of information and opinions relating to Public Accounts Committees, providing them with the opportunity to share experiences, best practice and matters of mutual interest.

The aim of the meeting was to improve the quality and performance of Public Accounts Committees, particularly in the Australasia.

The Honourable members of the Standing Committee for Public Accounts (PAC) were also invited to the Conference as well.

About The OAG.

The Office of the Auditor-General of Fiji (OAG) assists the Auditor-General deliver against the mandate of the Constitution of the Republic of Fiji and the Audit Act 1969.

OAG's vision is to excel in public sector auditing. And the OAG believes that this vision can be accomplished through providing world class, independent and objective value adding services to its stakeholders and providing a working environment that will allow its people to excel.

